

The Princlings and the Lost City

---

Principal Characters

Fred and George: Princlings of Castle Marsh, but staying at Castle Buckmore and busy with their own interests

Princess Kira: sister of the bride, daughter of King Helier of Dimerie. Full of spunk and never known to scream, even if in distress

Princess Nerys: eldest daughter of King Helier and betrothed to Prince Lupin of Buckmore

Prince Lupin of Buckmore: the happy bridegroom

Lady Nimrod: the wisdom behind the throne, and wise enough to withdraw to allow Nerys her head

Baden: steward of Buckmore, still

King Vladimir: Fred and George's uncle, left sorting out the mess at Castle Marsh after all the pirate activity

Princes Miles and Morris: Nerys and Kira's older brothers

Victor: son of Argon, the proprietor of the Inn of the Seventh Happiness, but now carving out a career in business for himself

Prince Hunston: Crown Prince of Castle Wash

Sundance: a person of many talents, and many problems also

Pippin: formerly the helmsman of the Golden Guinea, has given up pirating and is now working for George at Buckmore

Munch: a coach driver in the employ of Castle Buckmore, who is not all he seems

Queen Eleanor: Queen of Arbor, a female with a problem

Princess Jess: a princess of Arbor, given to using pseudonyms

Princess Rosebud: a princess of Arbor, full of girlish glee

Maisie: the best friend of Princess Rosebud

Big Sylv: head of Security at Arbor. Members of her security team are not individually listed

Io: the proprietor of the bar at Arbor

Jupiter: the proprietor of the bar at Buckmore

Others: Robert and Haggis & Co, still military types as before. Various Uncles and Kings at the wedding that are not important to the story.